

Last year my mother came down with shingles and the blistering wrapped around her torso causing extreme pain. I gave her a jar of Alwyn Cream and it helped significantly in the recovery of her skin where the shingles had been. She also told me that this was the first winter season that her thumb nails did not dry and crack open as they had every winter for as long as anyone can remember.